

JUNE 6-9, 2010

The State Bar of Texas Law-Related Education Department is pleased to offer the following professional development opportunity for Texas Middle School (Eighth Grade) and High School (American History and Government) teachers.

The Academy offers educators content and strategies for teaching the “Seven Principle’s of Constitutionalism” and the “U.S. Constitution in time of Crisis.” Important events and decisions concerning Equality in American History will also be studied.

A team of talented scholars and consultants will present information and lessons dealing with TAKS Objectives One and Four. A variety of demonstrated lessons will incorporate multiuse visuals, music and interactive strategies.

Admittance into “The Academy” will be by application only. Twenty educators will be selected by a panel created from members of both the Law Focused Education Committee and the Law Focused Education, Inc. Board of Directors. Social Studies teachers employed by public, private or parochial schools or social studies supervisors who work with social studies teachers are eligible to attend.

In order to apply for The Academy, each applicant must complete the following items, by May 1, 2010 to be considered for participation in the 2010 Academy:

- Pay the registration fee of $100.00. Make check payable to the State Bar of Texas.
- Complete the application form.
- One page resume.
- Letter of recommendation from his/her principal, school district administrator or direct/supervisor reflecting support for the applicant to share the materials from the Institute with others on the campus.
- Applicant essay (one double-spaced page) the essay should include information about the applicant’s professional background and interest in attending the institute. It should also include how the experience would enhance his/her teaching or district service.
- Be a teacher in Texas.

A fee of $100 must accompany the application packet. Fees will be returned for those applicants who are not selected to attend. The application packet must be postmarked by May 1, 2010.

Law-Related Education will e-mail notification of selection no later than May 18, 2010.

All materials, hotel (Double Occupancy at the Doubletree Guest Suites), breakfasts, lunches and dinners will be provided. Participants are responsible for incidentals (pay-per-view movies, room service etc...) and travel to Austin.
